LEE WEST RUN TO GROUND AT HUNTSVILLE.

Lee West Run to Ground at Huntsville.

STOLEN VALUABLES FOUND.

ON THE PERSON OF THE ALLEGED THIEF.

He Tried to Cash Checks at Various Places On the Way From Salt Lake to Ogden—Good Work of the Salt Lake and Ogden Police in Capturing the Thief.

The man who robbed the Frisco mail pouch at Milford last Friday night is under arrest; at least, the man who is charged with it is, and the evidence at hand goes very strongly to indicate that he is the guilty party. His name is Lee West and he was captured at Huntsville last evening at 6:30 by Detective Sheets of this city, and Detective Pender of Ogden, after a hard chase. He was taken to Ogden and will be brought to this city this morning.

He is a clever schemer, neither affirming nor denying anything, but six checks were found on his person, one for $7,500, another for $2,000, and others for smaller amounts. There were also a number of postage stamps and stock certificates of the Ben Harrison Silver Mining company. The checks and stock certificates were known to have been in the mail pouch which was stolen.

The chase was commenced by the officers Tuesday morning, immediately after it was learned that an individual had presented a check for $20 at McCornick's bank, payment having been withheld, as it was ascertained that the check was one of those stolen from the mail pouch.

Information had been imparted to the police department it was learned that the man had hired a horse from the Jockey Club stable on Market street, paying L. Kimball, the proprietor, $1.00 in advance and stating that he was going to Murray. He was next seen at 4 p. m. at the Warm Springs, where Policeman O. P. Pratt learned that he had tried to cash a $4 check, but was refused. He was then seen at the Weber, where Chief Pratt and Detective Sheets had gone to Ogden and with the assistance of the department had traced him to the city.

Chief Davenport went to Ogden yesterday morning and later to Morgan, and found that West had been there, he had gone north through Cottonwood canyon. It was learned that he had previously passed through Peters, a 12 o'clock yesterday.

It was very plain that he pursued his course from the south, and reached Huntsville for the night. Chief Pratt, who had returned to Salt Lake, heard Sheets at 5 o'clock last night, heard him off at 10 o'clock, and he reached Ogden in an hour and a quarter. Then he right up against West, who had reached the town at 4 p. m. In fact he was encountered when they drove to the hotel. He showed himself a bad character by offering resistance, but was quickly covered by the officers. He was then taken to Ogden, where he was held in the city jail.

On him were found a lot of checks, stamps, and other articles that fastened the case plainly upon him. He was held in Ogden last night and will be brought to Salt Lake this morning.

A CLEVER ROGUE.

From his demeanor, West is believed to be a clever and thoroughgoing rogue. He is reported to have formerly been a gambler and a thief, and is considered a very important capture. He is a young man, with gray-blue eyes, with clean face, measuring 5 feet 10 inches in height, and weighing 160 pounds. He wore a light coat and vest and dark pants.

It appears that West arrived in this city Monday night, in company with Hans Root of Milford, and it is said they slept together at the Walker House. Root is detained at the police department here for investigation, and it is said that he is a very strong evidence against him. He and West are reported to have come from Desert Springs to Milford Friday, and placed every facility in their power to escape from the city.

Postoffice Inspector Sutton, who last night, showing the cut through which the letters and papers were taken.

Root stated last night that he runs a boarding house at Milford and West has been lodging with him. They had both, he said, worked on the Utah & Pacific railroad grade.

CUT THE SACK ON PLATFORM.

He said it appeared that the mail sack was cut while lying on the platform at Milford Friday night. He came to Ogden last night, and in inquiry was made regarding West he quickly announced that he came on the same train with him. He thinks West was in the mail sack, and he was favorably known here, and nothing of a damaging character has been given out against him.

Chief Pratt feels gratified for the material assistance furnished by Chief Davenport and Detective Pender of Ogden. Superintendent Calvin of the Short Line was much pleased at the capture. He placed every facility in the way of transportation at the command of the department, and had Detective Wheeler in the field.

Inspector George M. Sutton arrived in the city last evening from Milford, where he has been working on the case. Early in the evening he held a conference with Chief Pratt, and after a long talk, he was searching then, he said, that could be given for publication. He has the killed mail pouch in his possession and other evidences of the robbery. He said last night he was informed of the capture of West, and was much elated over it.

Three persons who came up from Milford were arrested on suspicion of being accomplices yesterday, but as they could not be connected with the robbery in any way they were released.

REFORMING WAYWARD GIRLS.

NOBLE WOMEN NEED MORE MONEY TO CONTINUE WORK.

THE POLICE COMMITTEE AND OFFICERS COMMEND THE PLAN—THE CITY ASKED FOR $100 A MONTH.

It is impossible to place a money value on a young woman's soul that is rescued from a sinful path, but that the work of redemption by noble women is worth all it costs was demonstrated last evening before the city council committee on police.

Mrs. Dr. Plummer and Mrs. Dr. Vincent, representing the association of women who have maintained a home for wayward girls, appeared before the committee, and presented a petition for an increase of the 50 monthly allowance from the city toward the maintenance of the home.

The petition was presented by Mrs. Vincent, and was signed by 100 ladies, many of whom are prominent in the city. The petition was presented by Mrs. Vincent, and was signed by 100 ladies, many of whom are prominent in the city.
